

CARINA MIRABILE

TV media personality | model | actress

ABOUT CARINA

Carina Mirabile is the breakout star of Reality Show, Married at First Sight Australia and a rising force in beauty, lifestyle, fashion, luxury, and travel.

Hailing from Western Australia and now relocating to Sydney, her passion for fashion began early, inspired by a family of creatives and countless childhood moments spent playing dress-up. She studied at the School of Fashion and Textiles at Polytechnic TAFE, interned with Aurelio Costarella and The Sunday Times Magazine, and later completed a Broadcast Journalism degree at Edith Cowan University.

Carina has worked across the global fashion scene in LA, New York, and London, including helping launch Ksubi's flagship Soho store in 2018. Her experience culminated in the launch of her own fashion label, MIRAB., a brand built on individuality and self-expression.

Carina appeared on the 2025 season of Married at First Sight Australia—the country's top-rating entertainment show aired in 150 countries. This year she launched a Podcast with co-host Jacob Muller, her hair stylist - called 'This is Chaos' through Nova Affiliates.

With a natural flare for being in front of the camera, Carina has a love for engaging with humans through conversations and authentic content building that connects through voice overs, podcasting and hosting.
